PART I - PRELIMINARY

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the International Arbitration Act 2008.

2. Interpretation

(1) In this Act -

"Amended Model Law" means the Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration adopted by UNCITRAL on 21 June 1985, as amended on 7 July 2006;

"arbitration" means any arbitration whether or not administered by a permanent arbitral institution;

"arbitration agreement" means an agreement by the parties to submit to arbitration all or certain disputes which have arisen or may arise between them in respect of a defined legal relationship, whether contractual or not;

"arbitral tribunal" means a sole arbitrator or a panel of arbitrators;

"costs of the arbitration" means the costs of the PCA in discharging its functions under this Act, the fees and expenses of the arbitral tribunal, the legal and other expenses of the parties, and any other expenses related to the arbitration;

"Court" -

- (a) means a Court in Mauritius; and
- (b) includes, where appropriate, a body or organ of the Judicial System of a foreign state; but
- (c) does not include the PCA;

"data message" -

- (a) means information generated, sent received or stored by electronic, magnetic, optical or similar means; and

- (b) includes electronic data interchange (EDI), electronic mail, telegram, telex or telecopy;

"domestic arbitration" means any arbitration with its juridical seat in Mauritius other than an international arbitration under section 3(2);

"electronic communication" means any communication between the parties by means of a data message;

"GBL Company" means a company holding a Global Business Licence under the Financial Services Act;

"juridical seat" means the juridical seat of an arbitration referred to in section 10;

"New York Convention" means the Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards signed at New York on 10 June 1958;

"PCA" means the Permanent Court of Arbitration, having its seat at the Hague, acting through its Secretary-General;

"UNCITRAL" means the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law.

- (2) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, any request or other written communication in an arbitration governed by this Act shall be deemed to have been received on the day on which it is delivered where –
  - (a) it is delivered to the addressee personally or at its place of business, habitual residence or mailing address or, if none of these can be found after making a reasonable inquiry, it is sent to the addressee's last-known place of business, habitual residence or mailing address by registered letter or any other means which provides a record of the attempt to deliver it; and

- (b) the means of communication used is any means of communication, electronic or otherwise, that provides a record of despatch and receipt of the communication, including delivery against receipt, registered post, courier, facsimile transmission, telex or telegram.
- (3) Where a provision of this Act, save for section 28, leaves the parties free to determine a certain issue, such freedom includes the right of the parties to authorize a third party, including an institution, to make that determination.
- (4) Where a provision of this Act refers to the fact that the parties have agreed or that they may agree or in any other way refers to an agreement of the parties, such agreement includes any arbitration rules referred to in that agreement.
- (5) Where a provision of this Act, other than sections 27(a) and 37(2)(a), refers to a claim, it also applies to a counterclaim, and where it refers to a defence it also applies to a defence to such counterclaim.

3. Application of Act

- (1) (a) This Act shall not apply to arbitrations initiated before its commencement.
- (b) This Act shall apply to arbitrations initiated on or after its commencement under an arbitration agreement whenever made.
- (c) (i) Subject to subparagraph (ii), this Act shall apply solely to international arbitrations (as defined in subsection (2)).
- (ii) Sections 5, 6, 22 and 23 shall apply to an arbitration which satisfies the criteria set out in subsection (2)(b), whether or not its juridical seat is Mauritius.

- (d) The fact that an enactment confers jurisdiction on a Court but does not refer to the determination of the matter by arbitration does not per se indicate that a dispute about the matter is not capable of determination by arbitration.
  - (e) Where any other enactment provides for the statutory arbitration of a dispute, this Act shall not apply to an arbitration arising under that other enactment.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(c)(1), an arbitration shall, subject to subsection (6), be an international arbitration where -
- (a) the juridical seat of the arbitration is Mauritius; and
  - (b)
    - (i) the parties to the arbitration agreement have, at the time of the conclusion of that agreement, their place of business in different States; or
    - (ii) one of the following places is situated outside the State in which the parties have their places of business -
      - (A) the juridical seat of the arbitration if determined in, or pursuant to, the arbitration agreement; or
      - (B) any place where a substantial part of the obligations of the commercial relationship is to be performed or the place with which the subject matter of the dispute is most closely connected; or
    - (iii) the parties have expressly agreed that the subject matter of the arbitration agreement relates to more than one State, or that this Act is to apply to their arbitration; or

- (iv) the shareholders in a GBL company have determined, pursuant to subsection (6), that any dispute concerning the Constitution of the company or relating to the company shall be referred to arbitration under this Act.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b) -

- (a) where a party has more than one place of business, the place of business is that which has the closest relationship to the arbitration agreement;
- (b) where a party does not have a place of business, reference is to be made to its habitual residence.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), the First Schedule or any of its specific provisions shall apply to an international arbitration only if the parties so agree by making express reference to that Schedule or to that specific provision.

(5) (a) Any issue as to -

- (i) whether an arbitration is an international arbitration; or
- (ii) whether the First Schedule or any of its specific provisions apply to an international arbitration, shall be determined by the arbitral tribunal.

(b) Where an issue referred to in paragraph (a) arises before a Court or the PCA -

- (i) that Court or the PCA shall decline to decide that issue and refer it for determination by the arbitral tribunal; but

- (ii) where the arbitral tribunal has not yet been constituted, the Court or the PCA may make a provisional determination of the issue pending the determination thereof by the arbitral tribunal.
- (6)
  - (a) Without prejudice to the right of a GBL company to agree to the arbitration of any dispute between itself and any third party under this Act, its shareholders may determine that any dispute concerning the constitution of the company or relating to the company shall be referred to arbitration under this Act.
  - (b) Notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, the juridical seat of any arbitration under this subsection shall be Mauritius and the First Schedule shall apply to that arbitration.
  - (c) The shareholders of a GBL company may incorporate an arbitration agreement in the constitution of the company, whether by reference to the model arbitration clause contained in the Second Schedule or otherwise -
    - (i) at the time of the incorporation of the company; or
    - (ii) at any later time by a unanimous resolution of all current shareholders.
- (7) A party who knows or could with reasonable diligence have known that any provision of this Act from which the parties may agree to derogate or any requirement under the arbitration agreement has not been complied with but proceeds with the arbitration proceedings without stating an objection to the non-compliance within a reasonable time or such time as may have been agreed by the parties shall be deemed to have waived its right to object.
- (8) In matters governed by this Act, no Court shall intervene except where so provided in this Act.

- (9) In applying and interpreting this Act and in developing the law applicable to international arbitration in Mauritius -
- (a) regard shall be had to the origin of the Amended Model Law (the corresponding provisions of which are set out in the Third Schedule) and to the need to promote uniformity in its application and the observance of good faith;
  - (b) any question concerning matters governed by the Amended Model Law which is not expressly settled in that law shall be settled in conformity with the general principles on which that law is based; and
  - (c) recourse may be had to international materials relating to the Amended Model Law and to its interpretation, including -
    - (i) relevant reports of UNCITRAL;
    - (ii) relevant reports and analytical commentaries of the UNCITRAL Secretariat;
    - (iii) relevant case-law from other Model Law jurisdictions, including the case-law reported by UNCITRAL in its CLOUT database; and
    - (iv) textbooks, articles and doctrinal commentaries on the Amended Model Law.
- (10) In carrying out the objects of subsection (9), no recourse shall be had to, and no account shall be taken of, existing statutes, precedents, practices, principles or rules of law or procedure relating to domestic arbitration.
- (11) This Act shall bind the State.

PART II - INITIATION OF PROCEEDINGS

4. Arbitration agreement

- (1) An arbitration agreement -
  - (a) may be in the form of an arbitration clause in a contract or other legal instrument or in the form of a separate agreement; and
  - (b) shall be in writing.
- (2) An arbitration agreement is in writing where -
  - (a) its contents are recorded in any form, whether or not the arbitration agreement or the contract has been concluded orally, by conduct, or by other means;
  - (b) it is concluded by an electronic communication and the information contained in it is accessible so as to be usable for subsequent reference; or
  - (c) it is contained in an exchange of statements of claim and defence in which the existence of an agreement is alleged by one party and not denied by the other.
- (3) The reference in a contract to a document containing an arbitration clause constitutes an arbitration agreement in writing where the reference is such as to make that clause part of the contract.

5. Substantive claim before Court

- (1) Where an action is brought before any Court, and a party contends that the action is the subject of an arbitration agreement, that Court shall automatically transfer the action to the Supreme Court, provided that that party so requests not later than when submitting his first statement on the substance of the dispute.

- (2) The Supreme Court shall, on a transfer under subsection (1), refer the parties to arbitration unless a party shows, on a prima facie basis, that there is a very strong probability that the arbitration agreement may be null and void, inoperative or incapable of being performed, in which case it shall itself proceed finally to determine whether the arbitration agreement is null and void, inoperative or incapable of being performed.
- (3) Where the Supreme Court finds that the agreement is null and void, inoperative or incapable of being performed, it shall transfer the matter back to the Court which made the transfer.
- (4) Where an action referred to in subsection (1) has been brought, arbitral proceedings may nevertheless be commenced or continued, and one or more awards may be made, while the issue is pending before any Court.

6. Compatibility of interim measures

- (1) It is not incompatible with an arbitration agreement for a party to request, before or during arbitral proceedings, from the Supreme Court or a Court in a foreign state an interim measure of protection in support of arbitration and for the Court to grant such a measure.
- (2) An application to the Supreme Court under subsection (1) shall be made and determined in accordance with section 23.

7. Death or bankruptcy or winding up of party

- (1) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, an arbitration agreement is not discharged by the death, bankruptcy or winding up of a party and may be enforced by or against the representatives of that party.

- (2) Subsection (1) shall not affect the operation of any enactment by virtue of which a substantive right or obligation is extinguished by death, bankruptcy or winding up.

8. Consumer arbitration agreement

- (1) Where -

- (a) a contract contains an arbitration agreement; and
- (b) a person enters into that contract as a consumer, the arbitration agreement shall be enforceable against the consumer only if the consumer, by separate written agreement entered into after the dispute has arisen, certifies that, having read and understood the arbitration agreement, he agrees to be bound by it.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a person enters into a contract as a consumer where –
- (a) he is a natural person; and
  - (b) he enters into the contract otherwise than as a trader; and
  - (c) the other party to the contract enters into that contract as a trader.
- (3) Subsection (1) shall apply to every contract containing an arbitration agreement entered into in Mauritius even where the contract provides that it shall be governed by a law other than Mauritius law.

9. Commencement of proceedings

Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the arbitral proceedings in respect of a particular dispute commence on the date on which a request by one party for that dispute to be referred to arbitration is received by the other party.

10. Juridical seat

- (1) Subject to subsection 3(5)(b)(ii), unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the juridical seat of the arbitration shall be determined by the arbitral tribunal having regard to the circumstances of the case.
- (2) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, and notwithstanding subsection (1), the arbitral tribunal may meet at such geographical location as it considers appropriate for consultation among its members, for hearing witnesses, experts or the parties, or for inspection of goods or other property or documents.

PART III – THE ARBITRAL TRIBUNAL

11. Number of arbitrators

Unless otherwise agreed by the parties -

- (a) the number of arbitrators shall be 3; and
- (b) an agreement that the number of arbitrators shall be an even number shall be understood as requiring the appointment of an additional arbitrator as presiding arbitrator.

12. Appointment of arbitrators

- (1) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, no person shall be precluded by reason of his nationality from acting as an arbitrator.
- (2) Subject to subsections (4) and (5), the parties are free to agree on a procedure for appointing the arbitral tribunal.

- (3) Insofar as there is no agreement pursuant to subsection (2) -
- (a) in an arbitration with 3 arbitrators -
    - (i) each party shall appoint one arbitrator, and the 2 arbitrators thus appointed shall appoint the third arbitrator who shall act as presiding arbitrator; and
    - (ii) where a party fails to appoint an arbitrator within 30 days of receipt of a request to do so from the other party, or where the 2 arbitrators fail to agree on the third arbitrator within 30 days of their appointment, the appointment shall be made, on the request of a party, by the PCA;
  - (b) in an arbitration with a sole arbitrator, where the parties have failed to agree on the arbitrator within 30 days of receipt of a request from a party, he shall be appointed, on the request of a party, by the PCA;
  - (c) where the arbitral tribunal is to be composed of a number of arbitrators other than one or 3, the arbitrators shall be appointed according to the method agreed upon by the parties, or, if those methods fail, in accordance with subsections (4) and (5); and
  - (d) where there are multiple claimants or respondents, the multiple claimants, jointly, and the multiple respondents, jointly, shall each appoint an arbitrator, and the 2 arbitrators thus appointed shall appoint the third arbitrator who shall act as presiding arbitrator or, if this method of appointment fails, the appointment shall be made in accordance with subsections (4) and (5).
- (4) Where, under an appointment procedure agreed upon by the parties -
- (a) a party fails to act as required under that procedure;

- (b) the parties, or any arbitrators already appointed, are unable to reach an agreement expected of them under that procedure; or
- (c) a third party, including an arbitral institution, fails to perform any function entrusted to it under that procedure, any party may request the PCA to take any necessary measures, unless the agreement on the appointment procedure provides other means for securing the appointment.

- (5) In the event of any other failure to constitute the arbitral tribunal, any party may request the PCA to take any necessary measures, unless the agreement on the appointment procedure provides other means for resolving the failure.
- (6) The measures which the PCA may take under subsections (4) and (5) shall include -
  - (a) giving directions as to the making of any necessary appointments;
  - (b) directing that the arbitral tribunal shall be constituted by such appointments (or anyone or more of them) as have been made;
  - (c) revoking any appointment already made;
  - (d) appointing or reappointing any or all of the arbitrators; and
  - (e) designating any arbitrator as the presiding arbitrator.
- (7) The PCA, in appointing an arbitrator, shall have due regard to any qualifications required of the arbitrator by the agreement of the parties and to such considerations as are likely to secure the appointment of an independent and impartial arbitrator and, in the case of a sole or third or presiding arbitrator, shall also take into account the advisability of appointing an arbitrator of a nationality other than those of the parties.

13. Grounds for challenge of arbitrator

- (1) Where a person is approached in connection with his possible appointment as an arbitrator, he shall disclose any circumstance likely to give rise to justifiable doubts as to his impartiality or independence.
- (2) An arbitrator, from the time of his appointment and throughout the arbitral proceedings, shall without delay disclose any circumstance referred to in subsection (1) to the parties unless they have already been informed of it by him.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), an arbitrator may be challenged only if circumstances exist that give rise to justifiable doubts as to his impartiality or independence, or if he does not possess qualifications agreed to by the parties.
- (4) A party may challenge an arbitrator appointed by him, or in whose appointment it has participated, only for reasons of which it becomes aware after the appointment has been made.

14. Procedure for challenge of arbitrator

- (1) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), the parties are free to agree on a procedure for challenging an arbitrator.
- (2) Failing an agreement pursuant to subsection (1) -
  - (a) a party who intends to challenge an arbitrator shall, within 15 days after becoming aware of the constitution of the arbitral tribunal or after becoming aware of any circumstance referred to in section 13(3), send a written statement of the reasons for the challenge to the arbitral tribunal; and

- (b) unless the challenged arbitrator withdraws from his office or the other party agrees to the challenge, the arbitral tribunal shall decide on the challenge.
- (3) Where a challenge under any procedure agreed by the parties or under the procedure set out in subsection (2) is not successful, the challenging party may, within 30 days after having received notice of the decision rejecting the challenge, request the PCA to decide on the challenge.
- (4) While a request under subsection (3) is pending, the arbitral tribunal, including the challenged arbitrator, may continue the arbitral proceedings and make one or more awards.

15. Failure or inability to act

- (1) Where an arbitrator becomes de jure or de facto unable to perform his functions or for any other reason fails to act without undue delay, his mandate terminates if he withdraws from his office or if the parties agree on the termination.
- (2) Where a controversy remains concerning any ground referred to in subsection (1), any party may request the PCA to decide on the termination of the mandate.
- (3) Where, under this section or section 14, an arbitrator withdraws from his office or a party agrees to the termination of the mandate of an arbitrator, this does not imply acceptance of the validity of any ground referred to in this section or section 13(3).

16. Replacement of arbitrator

- (1) Where the mandate of an arbitrator terminates under section 14 or 15 or because of his withdrawal from office for any other reason or because of the revocation of his mandate by agreement of the parties or in any other case of termination of his mandate save under section 12(6), a substitute arbitrator shall, subject to this section, be appointed according to the procedure that was applicable to the appointment of the arbitrator being replaced.

- (2) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, where a party or the other members of the arbitral tribunal consider that an arbitrator has resigned for unacceptable reasons or refuses or fails to act without undue delay, that party or the other members of the arbitral tribunal may apply to the PCA to request the replacement of the arbitrator or the authorisation for the other members of the arbitral tribunal to continue the arbitration without the participation of that arbitrator.
- (3) In determining how and whether to act under subsection (2), the PCA shall take into account the stage of the arbitration, any explanation made by the arbitrator for his conduct and such other matters as it considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case.
- (4) Where, following an application under subsection (2), the PCA decides that the arbitrator is to be replaced, the PCA shall decide whether the replacement should be made applying the procedure that was applicable to the appointment of the arbitrator being replaced or whether the PCA should itself appoint the substitute arbitrator having regard to section 12(7).

17. Hearing following replacement of arbitrator

Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, where under section 14, 15 or 16 an arbitrator is replaced, the proceedings shall resume at the stage where the arbitrator who was replaced ceased to perform his functions, unless the arbitral tribunal decides that the proceedings should resume at an earlier stage.

18. Fees and expenses of arbitrators

- (1) The parties shall be jointly and severally liable to pay to the arbitrators such reasonable fees and expenses as are appropriate in the circumstances.

- (2) Where the arbitrators' remuneration would otherwise be the subject of no other scrutiny by an arbitral institution chosen by the parties or otherwise, any party may apply to the PCA, on notice to the other parties and to the arbitrators, which may order that the amount of the arbitrators' fees and expenses shall be adjusted and fixed in such manner and upon such terms as it may direct.

19. Protection from liability and finality of decisions

- (1) An arbitrator shall not be liable for anything done or omitted in the discharge or purported discharge of his functions as arbitrator unless the act or omission is shown to have been in bad faith.
- (2) An arbitral or other institution or person designated or requested by the parties to appoint or nominate an arbitrator shall not be liable –
  - (a) for anything done or omitted in the discharge or purported discharge of that function unless the act is shown to have been in bad faith;
  - (b) by reason of having appointed or nominated the said arbitrator, for anything done by the arbitrator or his employees or agents in the discharge or purported discharge of his functions as arbitrator.
- (3) The PCA shall not be liable for anything done or omitted in the discharge or purported discharge of its functions under this Act.
- (4) Subsections (1), (2) and (3) apply to an employee or agent of an arbitrator, of an arbitral institution, or of the PCA as they apply to the arbitrator, to the arbitral institution or to the PCA.
- (5) Subject only to the right of recourse under section 39 against awards rendered in the arbitral proceedings, all decisions of the PCA under this Act shall be final and subject to no appeal or review.

20. Competence as to jurisdiction

- (1) An arbitral tribunal may rule on its own jurisdiction, including on any objection with respect to the existence or validity of the arbitration agreement.
- (2) An arbitration clause which forms part of a contract shall be treated for the purposes of subsection (1) as an agreement independent of the other terms of the contract, and a decision by the arbitral tribunal that the contract is null and void shall not entail ipso jure the invalidity of the arbitration clause.
- (3)
  - (a) Subject to subsection (5), a plea that the arbitral tribunal does not have Jurisdiction shall be raised not later than the submission of the statement of defence.
  - (b) A party shall not be precluded from raising such a plea by the fact that it has appointed, or participated in the appointment of, an arbitrator.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), a plea that the arbitral tribunal is exceeding the scope of its authority shall be raised as soon as the matter alleged to be beyond the scope of its authority is raised during the arbitral proceedings.
- (5) The arbitral tribunal may admit a later plea under subsection (3) or (4) if it considers the delay justified.
- (6) The arbitral tribunal may rule on a plea referred to in subsection (3) or (4) as a preliminary question or in an award on the merits.
- (7) Where the arbitral tribunal rules on the plea as a preliminary question, any party may, within 30 days after having received notice of that ruling, request the Supreme Court to decide the matter, and, while such a request is pending, the arbitral tribunal may continue the arbitral proceedings and make one or more awards.

PART IV – INTERIM MEASURES

21. Interim measures by Tribunal

- (1) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the arbitral tribunal may, at the request of a party, grant interim measures, in the form of an award or in another form, by which, at any time before making the award by which the dispute is finally decided, the arbitral tribunal orders a party to -
  - (a) maintain or restore the status quo pending determination of the dispute;
  - (b) take action that would prevent, or refrain from taking action that is likely to cause current or imminent harm or prejudice to the arbitral process itself;
  - (c) provide a means of preserving assets out of which a subsequent award may be satisfied;
  - (d) preserve evidence that may be relevant and material to the resolution of the dispute; or
  - (e) provide security for costs.
- (2) The party requesting an interim measure under subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c) shall satisfy the arbitral tribunal that -
  - (a) harm not adequately reparable by an award of damages is likely to result if the measure is not ordered, and such harm substantially outweighs the harm that is likely to result to the party against whom the measure is directed if the measure is granted; and
  - (b) there is a reasonable possibility that the requesting party will succeed on the merits of the claim.

- (3) With regard to a request for an interim measure under subsection (1)(d) or (e), the requirements in subsection (2) shall apply only to the extent the arbitral tribunal considers appropriate.
- (4) The arbitral tribunal's determination of the existence of a reasonable possibility of success on the merits under subsection (2)(b) shall not affect the arbitral tribunal's independence and impartiality, or its power to make any subsequent determination of the merits.
- (5) The arbitral tribunal may modify, suspend or terminate an interim measure it has granted on application of any party or, in exceptional circumstances and on prior notice to the parties, on the arbitral tribunal's own initiative.
- (6) The arbitral tribunal may require the party requesting an interim measure to provide appropriate security in connection with the measure.
- (7) The arbitral tribunal may require any party promptly to disclose any material change in the circumstances on the basis of which the measure was requested or granted.
- (8) The arbitral tribunal may, at any time in the arbitral proceedings, order the party who requested the interim measure to pay damages and costs to another party where the arbitral tribunal determines that, in the circumstances, the measure requested should not have been granted.

22. Recognition and enforcement of interim measures

- (1) An interim measure granted by an arbitral tribunal shall, subject to this section, be recognised as binding and, unless otherwise provided by the arbitral tribunal, enforced on application to the Supreme Court, irrespective of the country in which it was issued.

- (2) The party who is seeking or has obtained recognition or enforcement of an interim measure shall promptly inform the Supreme Court of any termination, suspension or modification of that measure.
- (3) The Supreme Court may, on an application for recognition or enforcement of an interim measure and if it considers it proper, order the requesting party to provide appropriate security if the arbitral tribunal has not already made a determination with respect to security or where such a decision is necessary to protect the rights of third parties.
- (4) Recognition or enforcement of an interim measure may be refused only -
  - (a) at the request of the party against whom it is invoked where the Court is satisfied that -
    - (i) the refusal is warranted on a ground set out in section 39(2)(a);
    - (ii) the arbitral tribunal's decision with respect to the provision of security in connection with the measure issued by the arbitral tribunal has not been complied with; or
    - (iii) the interim measure has been terminated or suspended by the arbitral tribunal or, where so empowered, by the Court of the State in which the arbitration takes place or under the law of which that interim measure was granted; or
  - (b) where the Court finds that -
    - (i) the measure is incompatible with the powers conferred on the Court unless the Court decides to reformulate the measure to the extent necessary to adapt it to its own power and procedures for the purposes of enforcing that measure and without modifying its substance; or

(ii) any of the grounds set out in section 39(2)(b) apply to the recognition and enforcement of the measure.

(5) Any determination made by the Court on any ground in subsection (4) shall be effective only for the purposes of the application to recognise and enforce the interim measure. The Court where recognition or enforcement is sought shall not, in making that determination, undertake a review of the substance of the interim measure.
