Schedule 2 —Repeals

The Bill for this Act of the Scottish Parliament was passed by the Parliament on 18th November 2009 and received Royal Assent on 5th January 2010.

An Act of the Scottish Parliament to make provision about arbitration.

Introductory

1. Founding principles

The founding principles of this Act are—

- (a) that the object of arbitration is to resolve disputes fairly, impartially and without unnecessary delay or expense,
- (b) that parties should be free to agree how to resolve disputes subject only to such safeguards as are necessary in the public interest,
- (c) that the court should not intervene in an arbitration except as provided by this Act.

Anyone construing this Act must have regard to the founding principles when doing so.

2. Key terms

2(1) In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears—

“arbitration” includes—

- (a) domestic arbitration,
- (b) arbitration between parties residing, or carrying on business, anywhere in the United Kingdom, and
- (c) international arbitration,

“arbitrator” means a sole arbitrator or a member of a tribunal,

“dispute” includes—

- (a) any refusal to accept a claim, and
- (b) any other difference (whether contractual or not),

“party” means a party to an arbitration,

“rules” means the Scottish Arbitration Rules (see section 6), and “tribunal” means a sole arbitrator or panel of arbitrators.

2(2) References in this Act to “an arbitration”, “the arbitration” or “arbitrations” are references to a particular arbitration process or, as the case may be, to particular arbitration processes.

2(3) References in this Act to a tribunal conducting an arbitration are references to the tribunal doing anything in relation to the arbitration, including—

- (a) making a decision about procedure or evidence, and
- (b) making an award.

3 Seat of arbitration

3(1) An arbitration is “seated in Scotland” if:

(a) Scotland is designated as the juridical seat of the arbitration—

- (i) by the parties,
- (ii) by any third party to whom the parties give power to so designate, or
- (iii) where the parties fail to designate or so authorise a third party, by the tribunal, or

(b) in the absence of any such designation, the court determines that Scotland is to be the juridical seat of the arbitration.

3(2) The fact that an arbitration is seated in Scotland does not affect the substantive law to be used to decide the dispute.

4 Arbitration agreement

An “arbitration agreement” is an agreement to submit a present or future dispute to arbitration (including any agreement which provides for arbitration in accordance with arbitration provisions contained in a separate document).

5 Separability

(1) An arbitration agreement which forms (or was intended to form) part only of an agreement is to be treated as a distinct agreement.

(2) An arbitration agreement is not void, voidable or otherwise unenforceable only because the agreement of which it forms part is void, voidable or otherwise unenforceable.

(3) A dispute about the validity of an agreement which includes an arbitration agreement may be arbitrated in accordance with that arbitration agreement.

6 Law governing arbitration agreement

Where—

- (a) the parties to an arbitration agreement agree that an arbitration under that agreement is to be seated in Scotland, but
 - (b) the arbitration agreement does not specify the law which is to govern it,
- then, unless the parties otherwise agree, the arbitration agreement is to be governed by Scots law.

7 Scottish Arbitration Rules

The Scottish Arbitration Rules set out in schedule 1 are to govern every arbitration seated in Scotland (unless, in the case of a default rule, the parties otherwise agree).

8 Mandatory rules

The following rules, called “mandatory rules”, cannot be modified or disapplied (by an arbitration agreement, by any other agreement between the parties or by any other means) in relation to any arbitration seated in Scotland—

rule 3	arbitrator to be an individual rule 4	eligibility to act as an arbitrator
rule 7	failure of appointment procedure
rule 8	duty to disclose any conflict of interests
rules 12 to 16	removal or resignation of arbitrator or dismissal of tribunal rules 19 to 21 and 23	jurisdiction of tribunal
rules 24 and 25	general duties of tribunal and parties
rule 41	point of law referral: procedure etc.
rule 44	time limit variation: procedure etc.
rule 45	securing attendance of witnesses and disclosure of evidence
rule 48	power to award payment and damages
rule 50	interest
rule 54	part awards
rule 56	power to withhold award if fees or expenses not paid
rule 60	arbitrators’ fees and expenses
rule 63	ban on pre-dispute agreements about liability for arbitration expenses)
rules 67-68 and 70-72	challenging awards rules 73 to 75	immunity
rule 76	loss of right to object
rule 77	independence of arbitrator
rule 79	death of arbitrator
rule 81	rules applicable to umpires

9 Default rules

- 9(1) The non-mandatory rules are called the “default rules”.
- 9(2) A default rule applies in relation to an arbitration seated in Scotland only in so far as the parties have not agreed to modify or disapply that rule (or any part of it) in relation to that arbitration.
- 9(3) Parties may so agree—
- (a) in the arbitration agreement, or
 - (b) by any other means at any time before or after the arbitration begins.
- 9(4) Parties are to be treated as having agreed to modify or disapply a default rule—
- (a) if or to the extent that the rule is inconsistent with or disapplied by—
 - (i) the arbitration agreement,
 - (ii) any arbitration rules or other document (for example, the UNCITRAL Model Law, the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules or other institutional rules) which the parties agree are to govern the arbitration, or
 - (iii) anything done with the agreement of the parties, or
 - (b) if they choose a law other than Scots law as the applicable law in respect of the rule’s subject matter.

This subsection does not affect the generality of subsections (2) and (3).

Suspension of legal proceedings

10 Suspension of legal proceedings

- 10(1) The court must, on an application by a party to legal proceedings concerning any matter under dispute, sist those proceedings in so far as they concern that matter if:
- (a) an arbitration agreement provides that a dispute on the matter is to be resolved by arbitration (immediately or after the exhaustion of other dispute resolution procedures),
 - (b) the applicant is a party to the arbitration agreement (or is claiming through or under such a party),
 - (c) notice of the application has been given to the other parties to the legal proceedings,
 - (d) the applicant has not:
 - (i) taken any step in the legal proceedings to answer any substantive claim against the applicant, or
 - (ii) (otherwise acted since bringing the legal proceedings in a manner indicating a desire to have the dispute resolved by the legal proceedings rather than by arbitration, and

- (e) nothing has caused the court to be satisfied that the arbitration agreement concerned is void, inoperative or incapable of being performed.
- 10(2) Any provision in an arbitration agreement which prevents the bringing of the legal proceedings is void in relation to any proceedings which the court refuses to sist.
This subsection does not apply to statutory arbitrations.
- 10(3) This section applies regardless of whether the arbitration concerned is to be seated in Scotland.

Enforcing and challenging arbitral awards etc.

11 Arbitral award to be final and binding on parties

- 11(1) A tribunal's award is final and binding on the parties and any person claiming through or under them (but does not of itself bind any third party).
- 11(2) In particular, an award ordering the rectification or reduction of a deed or other document is of no effect in so far as it would adversely affect the interests of any third party acting in good faith.
- 11(3) This section does not affect the right of any person to challenge the award—
(a) under Part 8 of the Scottish Arbitration Rules, or
(b) by any available arbitral process of appeal or review.
- 11(4) This section does not apply in relation to a provisional award (see rule 50), such an award not being final and being binding only—
(a) to the extent specified in the award, or
(b) until it is superseded by a subsequent award.

12 Enforcement of arbitral awards

- 12(1) The court may, on an application by any party, order that a tribunal's award may be enforced as if it were an extract registered decree bearing a warrant for execution granted by the court.
- 12(2) No such order may be made if the court is satisfied that the award is the subject of—
(a) an appeal under Part 8 of the Scottish Arbitration Rules,
(b) an arbitral process of appeal or review, or
(c) a process of correction under rule 56 of the Scottish Arbitration Rules, which has not been finally determined.
- 12(3) No such order may be made if the court is satisfied that the tribunal which made the award did not have jurisdiction to do so (and the court may restrict the extent of its order if satisfied that the tribunal did not have jurisdiction to make a part of the award).
- 12(4) But a party may not object on the ground that the tribunal did not have jurisdiction if the party has lost the right to raise that objection by virtue of the Scottish Arbitration Rules (see rule 73).
- 12(5) Unless the parties otherwise agree, a tribunal's award may be registered for execution in the Books of Council and Session or in the sheriff court books (provided that the arbitration agreement is itself so registered).
- 12(6) This section applies regardless of whether the arbitration concerned was seated in Scotland.
- 12(7) Nothing in this section or in section 11 affects any other right to rely on or enforce an award in pursuance of—
(a) sections 17 to 19, or
(b) any other enactment or rule of law.
- 12(8) In this section, "court" means the sheriff or the Court of Session.

13 Court intervention in arbitrations

- 13(1) Legal proceedings are competent in respect of—
(a) a tribunal's award, or
(b) any other act or omission by a tribunal when conducting an arbitration, only as provided for in the Scottish Arbitration Rules (in so far as they apply to that arbitration) or in any other provision of this Act.
- 13(2) In particular, a tribunal's award is not subject to review or appeal in any legal proceedings except as provided for in Part 8 of the Scottish Arbitration Rules.
- 13(3) It is not competent for a party to raise the question of a tribunal's jurisdiction with the court except—
(a) where objecting to an order being made under section 10, or
(b) as provided for in the Scottish Arbitration Rules (see rules 21, 22 and 65).
- 13(4) Where the parties agree that the UNCITRAL Model Law is to apply to an arbitration, articles 6 and 11(2) to (5) of that Law are to have the force of law in Scotland in relation to that arbitration (as if article 6 specified the Court of Session and any sheriff court having jurisdiction).

14 Persons who take no part in arbitral proceedings

- 14(1) A person alleged to be a party to an arbitration but who takes no part in the arbitration may, by court proceedings, question—
(a) whether there is a valid arbitration agreement (or, in the case of a statutory arbitration, whether the enactment providing for arbitration applies to the dispute),
(b) whether the tribunal is properly constituted, or

- (c) what matters have been submitted to arbitration in accordance with the arbitration agreement, and the court may determine such a question by making such declaration, or by granting such interdict or other remedy, as it thinks appropriate.
- 14(2) Such a person has the same right as a party who participates in the arbitration to appeal against any award made in the arbitration under rule 65 or 66 (jurisdictional and serious irregularity appeals) and rule 68(2) does not apply to such an appeal.

15 Anonymity in legal proceedings

- 15(1) A party to any civil proceedings relating to an arbitration (other than proceedings under section 12) may apply to the court for an order prohibiting the disclosure of the identity of a party to the arbitration in any report of the proceedings.
- 15(2) On such an application, the court must grant the order unless satisfied that disclosure
- (a) is required—
 - (i) for the proper performance of the discloser's public functions, or
 - (ii) in order to enable any public body or office-holder to perform public functions properly,
 - (b) can reasonably be considered as being needed to protect a party's lawful interests,
 - (c) would be in the public interest, or
 - (d) would be necessary in the interests of justice.
- 15(3) The court's determination of an application for an order is final.

Statutory arbitration

16 Statutory arbitration: special provisions

- 16(1) "Statutory arbitration" is arbitration pursuant to an enactment which provides for a dispute to be submitted to arbitration.
- 16(2) References in the Scottish Arbitration Rules (or in any other provision of this Act) to an arbitration agreement are, in the case of a statutory arbitration, references to the enactment which provides for a dispute to be resolved by arbitration.
- 16(3) None of the Scottish Arbitration Rules (or other provisions of this Act) apply to a statutory arbitration if or to the extent that they are excluded by, or are inconsistent with, any provision made by virtue of any other enactment relating to the arbitration.
- 16(4) Every statutory arbitration is to be taken to be seated in Scotland.
- 16(5) The following rules do not apply in relation to statutory arbitration—
- rule 43 extension of time limits
 - rule 71(9) power to declare provision of arbitration agreement void
 - rule 80 death of party
- 16(6) Despite rule 40, parties to a statutory arbitration may not agree to—
- (a) consolidate the arbitration with another arbitration,
 - (b) hold concurrent hearings, or
 - (c) authorise the tribunal to order such consolidation or the holding of concurrent hearings, unless the arbitrations or hearings are to be conducted under the same enactment.

17 Power to adapt enactments providing for statutory arbitration

Ministers may by order—

- (a) modify any of the Scottish Arbitration Rules, or any other provisions of this Act, in so far as they apply to statutory arbitrations (or to particular statutory arbitrations),
- (b) make such modifications of enactments which provide for disputes to be submitted to arbitration as they consider appropriate in consequence of, or in order to give full effect to, any of the Scottish Arbitration Rules or any other provisions of this Act.

Recognition and enforcement of New York Convention awards

18 New York Convention awards

- 18(1) A "Convention award" is an award made in pursuance of a written arbitration agreement in the territory of a state (other than the United Kingdom) which is a party to the New York Convention.
- 18(2) An award is to be treated for the purposes of this section as having been made at the seat of the arbitration.
- 18(3) A declaration by Her Majesty by Order in Council that a state is a party to the Convention (or is a party in respect of any territory) is conclusive evidence of that fact.

19 Recognition and enforcement of New York Convention awards

- 19(1) A Convention award is to be recognised as binding on the persons as between whom it was made (and may accordingly be relied on by those persons in any legal proceedings in Scotland).
- 19(2) The court may order that a Convention award may be enforced as if it were an extract registered decree bearing a warrant for execution granted by the court.

20 Refusal of recognition or enforcement

- 20(1) Recognition or enforcement of a Convention award may be refused only in accordance with this section.

- 20(2) Recognition or enforcement of a Convention award may be refused if the person against whom it is invoked proves—
- (a) that a party was under some incapacity under the law applicable to the party,
 - (b) that the arbitration agreement was invalid under the law which the parties agree should govern it (or, failing any indication of that law, under the law of the country where the award was made),
 - (c) that the person—
 - (i) was not given proper notice of the arbitral process or of the appointment of the tribunal, or
 - (ii) was otherwise unable to present the person's case,
 - (d) that the tribunal was constituted, or the arbitration was conducted, otherwise than in accordance with—
 - (i) the agreement of the parties, or
 - (ii) failing such agreement, the law of the country where the arbitration took place.
- 20(3) Recognition or enforcement of a Convention award may also be refused if the person against whom it is invoked proves that the award—
- (a) deals with a dispute not contemplated by or not falling within the submission to arbitration,
 - (b) contains decisions on matters beyond the scope of that submission,
 - (c) is not yet binding on the person, or
 - (d) has been set aside or suspended by a competent authority.
- 20(4) Recognition or enforcement of a Convention award may also be refused if—
- (a) the award relates to a matter which is not capable of being settled by arbitration, or
 - (b) to do so would be contrary to public policy.
- 20(5) A Convention award containing decisions on matters not submitted to arbitration may be recognised or enforced to the extent that it contains decisions on matters which were so submitted which are separable from decisions on matters not so submitted.
- 20(6) The court before which a Convention award is sought to be relied on may, if an application for the setting aside or suspension of the award is made to a competent authority—
- (a) assist the decision on recognition or enforcement of the award,
 - (b) on the application of the party claiming recognition or enforcement, order the other party to give suitable security.
- 20(7) In this section "competent authority" means a person who has authority to set aside or suspend the Convention award concerned in the country in which (or under the law of which) the Convention award concerned was made.

21 Evidence to be produced when seeking recognition or enforcement

- 21(1) A person seeking recognition or enforcement of a Convention award must produce—
- (a) the duly authenticated original award (or a duly certified copy of it), and
 - (b) the original arbitration agreement (or a duly certified copy of it).
- 21(2) Such a person must also produce a translation of any award or agreement which is in a language other than English (certified by an official or sworn translator or by a diplomatic or consular agent).

22 Saving for other bases of recognition or enforcement

Nothing in sections 19 to 21 affects any other right to rely on or enforce a Convention award in pursuance of any other enactment or rule of law.

COMMENCEMENT AND CONSTITUTION OF TRIBUNAL ETC.

1. An arbitration begins when a party to an arbitration agreement (or any person claiming through or under such a party) gives the other party notice submitting a dispute to arbitration in accordance with the agreement.

Rule 2 Appointment of tribunal DEFAULT RULE

2. An arbitration agreement need not appoint (or provide for appointment of) the tribunal, but if it does so provide it may—

- (a) specify who is to form the tribunal,
- (b) require the parties to appoint the tribunal,
- (c) permit another person to appoint the tribunal, or
- (d) provide for the tribunal to be appointed in any other way.

Rule 3 Arbitrator to be an individual MANDATORY RULE

3 Only an individual may act as an arbitrator.

Rule 4 Eligibility to act as arbitrator DEFAULT RULE

4. An individual is ineligible to act as an arbitrator if the individual is—

- (b) an incapable adult (within the meaning of section 1(6) of the Adults with Incapacity (Scotland) Act 2000).

Rule 5 Number of arbitrators DEFAULT RULE

5. Where there is no agreement as to the number of arbitrators, the tribunal is to consist of a sole arbitrator.

 - (i) each party must appoint an eligible individual as an arbitrator (and must do so within 28 days of the other party requesting it to do so), and

- 46(3) The tribunal may continue with the arbitration pending determination of the application
- 46(4) This rule applies:

- 46(5) This rule does not affect—

- 50(3) An award may make different interest provision in respect of different amounts.
- 50(4) Interest is to be calculated:

Rule 56 Power to withhold award on non-payment of fees or expenses

MANDATORY RULE

- 56(1) The tribunal may refuse to deliver or send its award to the parties if any fees and expenses for which they are liable under rule 60 have not been paid in full.
- 56(2) Where the tribunal so refuses, the court may (on an application by any party) order:
- (a) that the tribunal must deliver the award on the applicant paying into the court an amount equal to the fees and expenses demanded (or such lesser amount as may be specified in the order),
 - (b) that the amount paid into the court is to be used to pay the fees and expenses which the court determines as being properly payable, and
 - (c) that the balance (if any) of the amount paid into the court is to be repaid to the applicant.
- 56(3) The court may make such an order only if the applicant has exhausted any available arbitral process of appeal or review of the amount of the fees and expenses demanded.
- 56(4) The court's decision on an application under this rule is final.

Rule 57 Arbitration to end on last award or early settlement

DEFAULT RULE

- 57(1) An arbitration ends when the last award to be made in the arbitration is made (and no claim, including any claim for expenses or interest, is outstanding).
- 57(2) But this does not prevent the tribunal from ending the arbitration before then under rule 20(3) or 37(1).
- 57(3) The parties may end the arbitration at any time by notifying the tribunal that they have settled the dispute.
- 57(4) On the request of the parties, the tribunal may make an award reflecting the terms of the settlement and these rules (except for rule 51(2)(c) and Part 8) apply to such an award as they apply to any other award.
- 57(5) The fact that the arbitration has ended does not affect the operation of these rules (in so far as they apply) in relation to matters connected with the arbitration.

DEFAULT RULE

- 58(1) The tribunal may correct an award so as to:
- (a) correct a clerical, typographical or other error in the award arising by virtue of accident or omission, or

- 58(2) The tribunal may make such a correction—
- (a) on its own initiative, or
 - (b) on an application by any party.
- 58(3) A party making an application under this rule must send a copy of the application to the other party at the same time as the application is made.
- 58(4) Such an application is valid only if made—
- (a) within 28 days of the award concerned, or
 - (b) by such later date as the Outer House or the sheriff may, on an application by the party, specify (with any determination by the Outer House or the sheriff being final)
- 58(5) The tribunal must, before deciding whether to correct an award, give—

 - (b) where a party application is made, the other party,
- a reasonable opportunity to make representations about the proposed correction.
- 58(6) A correction may be made under this rule only—
- (a) where the tribunal proposed the correction, within 28 days of the award concerned being made, or
 - (b) where a party application is made, within 28 days of the application being made.
- 58(7) Where a correction affects—
- (a) another part of the corrected award, or
 - (b) any other award made by the tribunal (relating to the substance of the dispute, expenses, interest or any other matter),
- the tribunal may make such consequential correction of that other part or award as it considers appropriate.
- 58(8) A corrected award is to be treated as if it was made in its corrected form on the day the award was made.

PART 7 ARBITRATION EXPENSES

 - (ii) the fees and expenses of any expert from whom the tribunal obtains an opinion,
 - (iii) any expenses in respect of meeting and hearing facilities, and
 - (iv) any expenses incurred in determining recoverable arbitration expenses.
- 60(2) The parties are also severally liable to pay the fees and expenses of—
- (a) any arbitral appointments referee, and
 - (b) any other third party to whom the parties give powers in relation to the arbitration.
- 60(3) The amount of fees and expenses payable under this rule and the payment terms are—
- (a) to be agreed by the parties and the arbitrators or, as the case may be, the arbitral appointments referee or other third party, or
 - (b) failing such agreement, to be determined by the Auditor of the Court of Session.
- 60(4) Unless the Auditor of the Court of Session decides otherwise—
- (a) the amount of any fee is to be determined by the Auditor on the basis of a reasonable commercial rate of charge, and
 - (b) the amount of any expenses is to be determined by the Auditor on the basis that a reasonable amount is to be allowed in respect of all reasonably incurred expenses.
- 60(5) The Auditor of the Court of Session may, when determining the amount of fees and expenses, order the repayment of any fees or expenses already paid which the Auditor considers excessive (and such an order has effect as if it was made by the court).
- 60(6) This rule does not affect:
- (a) the parties' liability as between themselves for fees and expenses covered by this rule (see rules 60 and 63), or
 - (b) the Outer House's power to make an order under rule 16 (order relating to expenses in cases of arbitrator's resignation or removal).

Rule 61 Recoverable arbitration expenses

DEFAULT RULE

- 61(1) The following arbitration expenses are recoverable—
- (a) the arbitrators' fees and expenses for which the parties are liable under rule 60,
 - (b) any expenses incurred by the tribunal when conducting the arbitration for which the parties are liable under rule 60, and
 - (c) the fees and expenses of any arbitral appointments referee (or any other third party to whom the parties give powers in relation to the arbitration) for which the parties are liable under rule 60.
- 61(2) It is for the tribunal to:
- (a) determine the amount of the other arbitration expenses which are recoverable, or
 - (b) arrange for the Auditor of the Court of Session to determine that amount.
- 61(3) Unless the tribunal or, as the case may be, the Auditor decides otherwise—
- (a) the amount of the other arbitration expenses which are recoverable must be determined on the basis that a reasonable amount is to be allowed in respect of all reasonably incurred expenses, and
 - (b) any doubt as to whether expenses were reasonably incurred or are reasonable in amount is to be resolved in favour of the person liable to pay the expenses.

Rule 62 Liability for recoverable arbitration expenses

DEFAULT RULE

- 62(1) The tribunal may make an award allocating the parties' liability between themselves for the recoverable arbitration expenses (or any part of those expenses).
- 62(2) When making an award under this rule, the tribunal must have regard to the principle that expenses should follow a decision made in favour of a party except where this would be inappropriate in the circumstances.
- 62(3) Until such an award is made (or where the tribunal chooses not to make such an award) in respect of recoverable arbitration expenses (or any part of them), the parties are, as between themselves, each liable:
- (a) for an equal share of any such expenses for which the parties are liable under rule 60, and
 - (b) for their own legal and other expenses.
- 62(4) This rule does not affect—
- (a) the parties' several liability for fees and expenses under rule 60, or

- (b) the liability of any party to any other third party.

Rule 63 Ban on pre-dispute agreements about liability for arbitration expenses MANDATORY RULE
63 Any agreement allocating the parties' liability between themselves for any or all of the arbitration expenses has no effect if entered into before the dispute being arbitrated has arisen.

Rule 64 Security for expenses DEFAULT RULE
64(1) The tribunal may:
(a) order a party making a claim to provide security for the recoverable arbitration expenses or any part of them, and
(b) if that order is not complied with, make an award dismissing any claim made by that party.
64(2) But such an order may not be made only on the ground that the party—
(a) is an individual who ordinarily resides outwith the United Kingdom, or
(b) is a body which is:
(i) incorporated or formed under the law of a country outwith the United Kingdom, or
(ii) managed or controlled from outwith the United Kingdom.

Rule 65 Limitation of recoverable arbitration expenses DEFAULT RULE
65(1) A provisional or part award may cap a party's liability for the recoverable arbitration expenses at an amount specified in the award.
65(2) But an award imposing such a cap must be made sufficiently in advance of the expenses to which the cap relates being incurred, or the taking of any steps in the arbitration which may be affected by the cap, for the parties to take account of it.

Rule 66 Awards on recoverable arbitration expenses DEFAULT RULE
66 An expenses award (under rule 60 or 63) may be made together with or separately from an award on the substance of the dispute (and these rules apply in relation to an expenses award as they apply to an award on the substance of the dispute).

PART 8 CHALLENGING AWARDS

Rule 67 Challenging an award: substantive jurisdiction MANDATORY RULE
67(1) A party may appeal to the Outer House against the tribunal's award on the ground that the tribunal did not have jurisdiction to make the award (a "jurisdictional appeal").
67(2) The Outer House may decide a jurisdictional appeal by—
(a) confirming the award,
(b) varying the award (or part of it), or
(c) setting aside the award (or part of it).
67(3) Any variation by the Outer House has effect as part of the tribunal's award.
67(4) An appeal may be made to the Inner House against the Outer House's decision on a jurisdictional appeal (but only with the leave of the Outer House).
67(5) Leave may be given by the Outer House only where it considers—
(a) that the proposed appeal would raise an important point of principle or practice, or
(b) that there is another compelling reason for the Inner House to consider the appeal.
67(6) The Outer House's decision on whether to grant such leave is final.
67(7) The Inner House's decision on such an appeal is final.

Rule 68 Challenging an award: serious irregularity MANDATORY RULE
68(1) A party may appeal to the Outer House against the tribunal's award on the ground of serious irregularity (a "serious irregularity appeal").
68(2) "Serious irregularity" means an irregularity of any of the following kinds which has caused, or will cause, substantial injustice to the appellants:
(a) the tribunal failing to conduct the arbitration in accordance with—
(i) the arbitration agreement,
(ii) these rules (in so far as they apply), or
(iii) any other agreement by the parties relating to conduct of the arbitration,
(b) the tribunal acting outwith its powers (other than by exceeding its jurisdiction),
(c) the tribunal failing to deal with all the issues that were put to it,
(d) any arbitral appointments referee or other third party to whom the parties give powers in relation to the arbitration acting outwith powers,
(e) uncertainty or ambiguity as to the award's effect,
(f) the award being—
(i) contrary to public policy, or

- (ii) obtained by fraud or in a way which is contrary to public policy,
 - (g) an arbitrator having not been impartial and independent,
 - (h) an arbitrator having not treated the parties fairly,
 - (i) an arbitrator having been incapable of acting as an arbitrator in the arbitration (or there being justifiable doubts about an arbitrator's ability to so act),
 - (i) an arbitrator not having a qualification which the parties agreed (before the arbitrator's appointment) that the arbitrator must have, or
 - (j) any other irregularity in the conduct of the arbitration or in the award which is admitted by—
 - (i) the tribunal, or
 - (ii) any arbitral appointments referee or other third party to whom the parties give powers in relation to the arbitration.
- 68(3) The Outer House may decide a serious irregularity appeal by—
- (a) confirming the award,
 - (b) ordering the tribunal to reconsider the award (or part of it), or
 - (c) if it considers reconsideration inappropriate, setting aside the award (or part of it).
- 68(4) Where the Outer House decides a serious irregularity appeal (otherwise than by confirming the award) on the ground—
- (a) that the tribunal failed to conduct the arbitration in accordance with—
 - (i) the arbitration agreement,
 - (ii) these rules (in so far as they apply), or
 - (iii) any other agreement by the parties relating to conduct of the arbitration,
 - (b) that an arbitrator has not been impartial and independent, or
 - (c) that an arbitrator has not treated the parties fairly,
- it may also make such order as it thinks fit about any arbitrator's entitlement (if any) to fees and expenses (and such an order may provide for the repayment of fees or expenses already paid to the arbitrator).
- 68(5) An appeal may be made to the Inner House against the Outer House's decision on a serious irregularity appeal (but only with the leave of the Outer House).
- 68(6) Leave may be given by the Outer House only where it considers—
- (a) that the proposed appeal would raise an important point of principle or practice, or
 - (b) that there is another compelling reason for the Inner House to consider the appeal.
- 68(7) The Outer House's decision on whether to grant such leave is final.
- 68(8) The Inner House's decision on such an appeal is final.

Rule 69 Challenging an award: legal error

DEFAULT RULE

- 69(1) A party may appeal to the Outer House against the tribunal's award on the ground that the tribunal erred on a point of Scots law (a "legal error appeal").
- 69(2) An agreement between the parties to disapply rule 51(2)(c) by dispensing with the tribunal's duty to state its reasons for its award is to be treated as an agreement to exclude the court's jurisdiction to consider a legal error appeal.

Rule 70 Legal error appeals: procedure etc.

MANDATORY RULE

- 70(1) This rule applies only where rule 69 applies.
- 70(2) A legal error appeal may be made only—
- (a) with the agreement of the parties, or
 - (b) with the leave of the Outer House.
- 70(3) Leave to make a legal error appeal may be given only if the Outer House is satisfied—
- (a) that deciding the point will substantially affect a party's rights,
 - (b) that the tribunal was asked to decide the point, and
 - (c) that, on the basis of the findings of fact in the award (including any facts which the tribunal treated as established for the purpose of deciding the point), the tribunal's decision on the point:
 - (i) was obviously wrong, or
 - (ii) where the court considers the point to be of general importance, is open to serious doubt.
- 70(4) An application for leave is valid only if it—
- (a) identifies the point of law concerned, and
 - (b) states why the applicant considers that leave should be granted.
- 70(5) The Outer House must determine an application for leave without a hearing (unless satisfied that a hearing is required).
- 70(6) The Outer House's determination of an application for leave is final.
- 70(7) Any leave to appeal expires 7 days after it is granted (and so any legal error appeal made after then is accordingly invalid unless made with the agreement of the parties).
- 70(8) The Outer House may decide a legal error appeal by—
- (a) confirming the award,
 - (b) ordering the tribunal to reconsider the award (or part of it), or

- (c) if it considers reconsideration inappropriate, setting aside the award (or part of it).
- 70(9) An appeal may be made to the Inner House against the Outer House's decision on a legal error appeal (but only with the leave of the Outer House).
- 70(10) Leave may be given by the Outer House only where it considers—
 - (a) that the proposed appeal would raise an important point of principle or practice, or
 - (b) that there is another compelling reason for the Inner House to consider the appeal.
- 70(11) The Outer House's decision on whether to grant such leave is final.
- 70(12) The Inner House's decision on such an appeal is final.

Rule 71 Challenging an award: supplementary

MANDATORY RULE

- 71(1) This rule applies to—
 - (a) jurisdictional appeals,
 - (b) serious irregularity appeals, and
 - (c) where rule 69 applies to the arbitration, legal error appeals, and references to “appeal” are to be construed accordingly.
- 70(2) An appeal is competent only if the appellant has exhausted any available arbitral process of appeal or review (including any recourse available under rule 58).
- 70(3) No appeal may be made against a provisional award.
- 70(4) An appeal must be made no later than 28 days after the later of the following dates—
 - (a) the date on which the award being appealed against is made,
 - (b) if the award is subject to a process of correction under rule 58, the date on which the tribunal decides whether to correct the award, or
 - (c) if there has been an arbitral process of appeal or review, the date on which the appellant was notified of the result of that process.

A legal error appeal is to be treated as having been made for the purposes of this rule if an application for leave is made.
- 70(5) An application for leave to appeal against the Outer House's decision on an appeal must be made no later than 28 days after the date on which the decision is made (and any such leave expires 7 days after it is granted).
- 70(6) An appellant must give notice of an appeal to the other party and the tribunal.
- 70(7) The tribunal may continue with the arbitration pending determination of an appeal against a part award.
- 70(8) The Outer House (or the Inner House in the case of an appeal against the Outer House's decision) may—
 - (a) order the tribunal to state its reasons for the award being appealed in sufficient detail to enable the Outer House (or Inner House) to deal with the appeal properly,
 - and
 - (b) make any other order it thinks fit with respect to any additional expenses arising from that order.
- 70(9) Where the Outer House (or the Inner House in the case of an appeal against the Outer House's decision) decides an appeal by setting aside the award (or any part of it), it may also order that any provision in an arbitration agreement which prevents the bringing of legal proceedings in relation to the subject-matter of the award (or that part of it) is void.
- 70(10) The Outer House (or the Inner House in the case of an appeal against the Outer House's decision) may—
 - (a) order an appellant (or an applicant for leave to appeal) to provide security for the expenses of the appeal (or application), and
 - (b) dismiss the appeal (or application) if the order is not complied with.
- 70(11) But such an order may not be made only on the ground that the appellant (or applicant)—
 - (a) is an individual who ordinarily resides outwith the United Kingdom, or
 - (b) is a body which is—
 - (i) incorporated or formed under the law of a country outwith the United Kingdom, or
 - (ii) managed or controlled from outwith the United Kingdom.
- 70(12) The Outer House (or the Inner House in the case of an appeal against the Outer House's decision) may—
 - (a) order that any amount due under an award being appealed (or any associated provisional award) must be paid into court or otherwise secured pending its decision on the appeal (or the application for leave to appeal), and
 - (b) dismiss the appeal (or application) if the order is not complied with.
- 70(13) An appeal to the Inner House against any decision of the Outer House under this rule may be made only with the leave of the Outer House.
- 70(14) An application for leave to appeal against such a decision must be made no later than 28 days after the date on which the decision is made (and any such leave expires 7 days after it is granted).
- 70(15) Leave may be given by the Outer House only where it considers—
 - (a) that the proposed appeal would raise an important point of principle or practice, or

- (b) that there is another compelling reason for the Inner House to consider the appeal.
- 70(16) The Outer House's decision on whether to grant such leave is final.
- 70(17) A decision of the Inner House under this rule (including any decision on an appeal against a decision by the Outer House) is final.

Rule 72 Reconsideration by tribunal

MANDATORY RULE

- 72(1) Where the Outer House or, as the case may be, the Inner House decides a serious irregularity appeal or a legal error appeal by ordering the tribunal to reconsider its award (or any part of it), the tribunal must make a new award in respect of the matter concerned (or confirm its original award) by no later than—
- (a) in the case of a decision by the Outer House—
- (i) where the decision is appealed, the day falling 3 months after the appeal (or, as the case may be, the application for leave to appeal) is dismissed or abandoned,
- (ii) where the decision is not appealed, the day falling 3 months after the decision is made, or
- (iii) such other day as the Outer House may specify,
- (b) in the case of a decision by the Inner House—
- (i) the day falling 3 months after the decision is made, or
- (ii) such other day as the Inner House may specify.
- 72(2) These rules apply in relation to the new award as they apply in relation to the appealed award.

 - (iii) the other party, or
 - (d) where the tribunal considers that circumstances justify a later objection, by such later date as it may allow.
- 76(3) This rule does not apply where the party shows that it did not object timeously because it—
- (a) did not know of the ground for objection, and
 - (b) could not with reasonable diligence have discovered that ground.
- 76(4) This rule does not allow a party to raise an objection which it is barred from raising for any reason other than failure to object timeously.

Rule 77 Independence of arbitrator MANDATORY RULE

- 77 For the purposes of these rules, an arbitrator is not independent in relation to an arbitration if—
- (a) the arbitrator’s relationship with any party,
 - (b) the arbitrator’s financial or other commercial interests, or
 - (c) anything else,
- gives rise to justifiable doubts as to the arbitrator’s impartiality.

Rule 78 Consideration where arbitrator judged not to be impartial and independent DEFAULT RULE

- 78(1) This rule applies where—
- (a) an arbitrator is removed by the Outer House under rule 12 on the ground that the arbitrator is not impartial and independent,
 - (b) the tribunal is dismissed by the Outer House under rule 13 on the ground that it has failed to comply with its duty to be impartial and independent, or
 - (c) the tribunal’s award (or any part of it) is returned to the tribunal for reconsideration, or is set aside, on either of those grounds (see rule 66).
- 78(2) Where this rule applies, the Outer House must have particular regard to whether an arbitrator has complied with rule 8 when it is considering whether to make an order under rule 16(1) or 66(4) about:
- (a) the arbitrator’s entitlement (if any) to fees or expenses,
 - (b) repaying fees or expenses already paid to the arbitrator.

Rule 79 Death of arbitrator MANDATORY RULE

- 79 An arbitrator’s authority is personal and ceases on death.

Rule 80 Death of party DEFAULT RULE

- 80(1) An arbitration agreement is not discharged by the death of a party and may be enforced by or against the executor or other representative of that party.
- 80(2) This rule does not affect the operation of any law by virtue of which a substantive right or obligation is extinguished by death.

Rule 81 Unfair treatment DEFAULT RULE

- 81 A tribunal (or arbitrator) who treats any party unfairly is, for the purposes of these rules, to be deemed not to have treated the parties fairly.

Rule 82 Rules applicable to umpires MANDATORY RULE

- 82(1) The following rules apply in relation to an umpire appointed under rule 29 (or otherwise with the agreement of the parties) as they apply in relation to an arbitrator or, as the case may be, the tribunal:
- rule 4
 - rule 8
 - rules 10 to 14
 - rule 24
 - rule 26
 - rules 59, 60 and 61(1)
 - rule 68
 - rule 73
 - rules 76 to 79
- 82(2) But the parties are, in so far as those rules are not mandatory rules, free to modify or disapply the way in which those rules would otherwise apply to an umpire.

Rule 83 Formal communications DEFAULT RULE

- 83(1) A “formal communication” means any application, award, consent, direction, notice, objection, order, reference, request, requirement or waiver made or given or any document served—
- (a) in pursuance of an arbitration agreement,
 - (b) for the purposes of these rules (in so far as they apply), or
 - (c) otherwise in relation to an arbitration.
- 83(2) A formal communication must be in writing.
- 83(3) A formal communication is made, given or served if it is—
- (a) hand delivered to the person concerned,
 - (b) sent to the person concerned by first class post in a properly addressed envelope or package—
 - (i) in the case of an individual, to the individual’s principal place of business or usual or last known abode,
 - (ii) in the case of a body corporate, to the body’s registered or principal office, or
 - (iii) in either case, to any postal address designated for the purpose by the intended recipient (such designation to be made by giving notice to the person giving or serving the formal communication), or
 - (c) sent to the person concerned in some other way (including by email, fax or other electronic means) which the sender reasonably considers likely to cause it to be delivered on the same or next day.
- 83(4) A formal communication which is sent by email, fax or other electronic means is to be treated as being in writing only if it is legible and capable of being used for subsequent reference.
- 83(5) A formal communication is, unless the contrary is proved, to be treated as having been made, given or served—
- (a) where hand delivered, on the day of delivery,
 - (b) where posted, on the day on which it would be delivered in the ordinary course of post, or
 - (c) where sent in any other way described above, on the day after it is sent.
- 83(6) The tribunal may determine that a formal communication—
- (a) is to be delivered in such other manner as it may direct, or
 - (b) need not be delivered,
- but it may do so only if satisfied that it is not reasonably practicable for the formal communication to be made, given or served in accordance with this rule (or, as the case may be, with any contrary agreement between the parties).
- 83(7) This rule does not apply in relation to any application, order, notice, document or other thing which is made, given or served in or for the purposes of legal proceedings.

Rule 84 Periods of time

DEFAULT RULE

- 84 Periods of time are to be calculated for the purposes of an arbitration as follows—
- (a) where any act requires to be done within a specified period after or from a specified date or event, the period begins immediately after that date or, as the case may be, the date of that event, and
 - (b) where the period is a period of 7 days or less, the following days are to be ignored—
 - (i) Saturdays and Sundays, and
 - (ii) any public holidays in the place where the act concerned is to be done.
